Science Code Manifesto

Code  All source code written specifically to process data for a published paper must be available to the reviewers and readers of the paper.

Copyright  The copyright ownership and license of any released source code must be clearly stated.

Citation  Researchers who use or adapt science source code in their research must credit the code’s creators in resulting publications.

Credit  Software contributions must be included in systems of scientific assessment, credit, and recognition.

Curation  Source code must remain available, linked to related materials, for the useful lifetime of the publication.
